“ We are so happy. Although we knew Robert Rauschenberg (an American Art legend) and know some other contemporary artists, we have only collected their prior works of art. This commission has been special in many ways. ”

- Sandi Moran
art patron and president of the Chaîne des Rôtisseurs Bailliage de Naples

Collecting with confidence

Blending old and new world traditions, San Francisco-based artist Ann Rea paints colors inspired by sunlight. Mentored by contemporary painter and American Art icon Wayne Thiebaud, she paints in the timeless tradition of the French Impressionists, actually painting oil studies in the vineyards.

Rea's work, and her inspiring story, continues to garner national media attention, including the Fine Living channel, as well as in Fortune and The Tasting Panel magazines. Join a growing list of discerning collectors across North America and Europe who are acquiring Rea's work and who are looking forward to seeing their paintings featured in her upcoming book series Colors of Terroir, available at:

annrea.com.

“ Ann Rea is intelligent and sensitive with a deep capacity for serious and sustained work. She is keen to share this talent. ”

- Wayne Thiebaud
American Art Icon
